OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

1) describe how accurately collecting demographic data for surveillance reporting (e.g. RVCT) supports health equity in communities
2) identify 3 strategies to use while asking sensitive questions to support comprehensive data collection
3) describe the HEAR technique to support de-escalation during emotional or challenging conversations