OBJECTIVES

By the end of this training, participants will be able to:

1. Describe two changes in the TB treatment regimen that can decrease nausea and vomiting to improve patient experience and support treatment completion.

2. Identify the preferred initial antiemetic drug and dose for prevention and treatment of nausea and vomiting.